

EACMFS White Book

Germany

Population (Millions): 82

Specialty Title: Mund-, Kiefer- und Gesichtschirurgie, Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery

National Association for the specialty: Deutsche Gesellschaft für Mund-, Kiefer- und Gesichtschirurgie e.V.

No. of OMFS training centers: 65

No. of OMFS Surgeon: 2000

No. of Trainees: 202

The OMFS specialty is part of which faculty? Faculty of Medicine

Training paths followed before undertaking specialty training in OMFS

● Path 1) Medical AND dental diplomas required before OMS training

Medical (years): 6

Dental (years): 5

Total years training: 11

Notes After completing the respective studies, one receives the title of physician (medicine) or dentist (dentistry).

Afterwards, one can voluntarily document one's academic interest by completing doctoral thesis each in medicine (Dr. med.) and another different one in dentistry (Dr. med. dent.).

OMFS Specialty Training taken after Path 1 or Path 2

OMFS training period (years): 5

Qualification awarded: Facharzt für Mund-, Kiefer- und Gesichtschirurgie

Is there a final OMFS qualifying exam?

Name or title of official authority registering qualification for practice in medicine:

Ärztchammer

Name or title of official authority registering qualification for practice in dentistry:

Zahnärztekammer

Name or title of official authority registering competence to practice as an accredited specialist in OMFS:

Ärztekammer

The information is correct as provided by the country's national councillor.
This information was last updated on 14-02-2024 12:01:00